

ALGERIANISM PART 1

Collective Exhibition

During recent years, the emergent art scene in Algeria has demonstrated a need to revive traditional features within contemporary issues, from intellectual, social and geopolitical contexts. 'Algerianism (part 1)' is a collaborative project co-curated by Algerian event director, Toufik Douib, and French artist born in Algeria, Patrick Altes, that looks to gather an eclectic view of Algeria's cultural identity, 50 years from its independence. The artists exhibiting:

Patrick Altes (visual artist)

'Mizo' Hamza Ait Mekideche (visual artist)

Souad Douibi (performance artist)

Kaci Ould Aissa (photographer)

Ghania Zaazoua 'Princess Zazou' (artist designer)

Yasser Ameur (visual artist)

26 October – 08 November | Open every day | 9am to 9pm

The Tabernacle Gallery
34-35 Powis Square, London W11 2AY, UK

(Tube Station: Westbourne Park - Notting Hill Gate)

For more information: algerianism@gmail.com – 07773877113

www.nourfestival.co.uk

NOUR نور

Free event supported by

